A Coupla White Chicks Sitting Around Talking staged reading by actors from the Nutley Little Theatre Saturday, March 11, at 2:00 p.m.

Enjoy a staged reading of A Coupla White Chicks Sitting Around Talking by talented members of the Nutley Little Theatre, under the direction of Don Sheffrin. The hit comedy was written by John Ford Noonan and premiered in 1980 at a tiny off-broadway theatre and starred Susan Sarandon and Eileen Brennan. This two-character comedy takes place in Westchester County in 1980. The women become friends and join forces against their errant and erring husbands. This show has mature language and themes and is suitable for adults only. Running time is two hours including a ten minute intermission.

Performed by Arrangement with Samuel French Inc.
