WITH THE FRIENDS OF THE NUTLEY LIBRARY

As I sit cradling my worn copy of “Alice’s Adventures In Wonderland,” it is hard to believe that 150 years have gone by since its publication. The sustainability, the familiarity, the fantastic trips that peak our imagination, that is what a book offers to us. This Fall, the “Friends” will sponsor two exciting events that will enable us to follow the advice of Dr. Seuss: “Fill your house with stacks of books, in all the crannies and all the nooks.”

October will bring our annual book sale. Where can you secure a fantastic journey for only $1.00 or less? November 14 is truly an exciting day! It is Nutley Library Day at Barnes and Noble, Clifton Commons, for an all-day book fair. A percentage of all library patron purchases will go towards library programming. A day of fun, free activities, story times, appearances by authors Laurie Lico Albanese, Maria E. Andreu, Shari Goldhagen, and Lisa Gornick, and a graphic novel “must-reads” conversation.
