VIRTUAL REALITY EXPERIENCE SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21 AT 10 AM

Adults and teens, stop by to experience the excitement of virtual reality using Oculus Virtual Reality Systems. Explore to infinity and beyond as you play games and immerse yourself into virtual environments.

NORTH WEST NUTLEY HISTORY THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26 AT 7 PM

This slide show will be an indoor version of the wildly successful July history walk. Town Historian John Demmer along with local author and historian David Wilson will present an hour of history from the North West section of Nutley. The "today and yesterday" format lets you place yourself in twenty historical locations. William Lambert, architect and developer, will be highlighted for his contributions to the development of Nutley (formerly Franklin). Early industrial development in Nutley will be discussed including the first electric power plant, quarry, hat factory and more. Come learn about this "wild and woolly" section of town.

CPAW NJ COMMUNITIES PROMOTING ANIMAL WELFARE THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17 AT 7 PM

Join us for an "Advocat" workshop with CPAW NJ co-founder Karen Shinevar to learn how to help outdoor animals in your community. CPAW NJ provides local residents with solutions to reduce cat overpopulation and suffering. They collaborate with community partners and raise awareness through education and training. Their co-spaystation offers low cost procedures and vaccinations. They promote and support local Trap, Neuter, Return programs. Since 2017 they have spayed/neutered over 800 cats and have placed over 80 cats and kittens in new and/or foster home.

Learn more about this dedicated group on its website www.cpawnj.org.

NUTLEY AUTHORS AND ARTISTS FOR THE 21ST CENTURY A RICH TRADITION CONTINUES SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21 AT 2 PM

Join us as we celebrate our library with local authors and artists Anthony Buccino, John Demmer, Gary Erbe, Catherine Greenfeder, Barry Lenson and David Wilson.

ESSEX FILM CLUB 80TH ANNIVERSARY THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24 AT 7 PM

Please join us at the Nutley Library for the celebration of the Essex Film Clubs 80th Anniversary. Founded in 1939 by film historian and restorer Bob Lee, the film club ran for 44 years in Nutley out of a private movie house in the rear of his Harrison Street home. Lee would show films (many silent movies) in this building which was designed to look like a real movie theater. Town Historian, John Demmer will give a slide show history of Bob Lee and the Essex Film Club. Afterwards there will be a nostalgic movie night which will include a comedy short, a PATHE news reel specific to Nutley, a cartoon and a thrilling short silent movie. Free popcorn will be available and all candy sales with benefit the Friends of the Library.

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

Looking to learn English? We offer ESL classes during the evening hours at the Nutley Public Library. Call 973-667-0405 x2604, email the instructor at ESLNutleyLibrary@gmail.com or speak to someone at the Reference Desk for more details. The classes are led by college instructor Tony Forte. There are fees for these classes.
